INDEX OF SUBJECTS.

Abortion, hysterectomy six weeks after, 84
— case of tubal, in which growth of the fœtus apparently continued after the formation of a hæmatocele, 609
— tubal mole removed during the process of, 621
Adeno-carcinoma of the uterine fundus, the histology of, 282
Adenoma of the labium, 195, 253
Adnexa, hernia of the uterine, 16, 91
Alexander's operation, ruptured ectopic gestation following, 618
Apoplexy (?) in a young ii.-para, 86
Appendages, some clinical considerations in respect of inflammation of the uterine, 67
Appendix, a case of pyosalpinx with removal of the adherent, 83
Atmocausis uteri, on, 496
Atony of the non-puerperal uterus, the influence of uterine nerves upon, 281
Auto-intoxication of pregnancy, Graves' Disease considered as a manifestation of the, 369

Bell, Robert Hamilton, Obituary, 632
Blood pressure during pregnancy, 247
Blood vessels of the uterus in nulliparæ and multiparæ and climacteric hæmorrhages, sclerotic changes in the, 385
British Gynæcological Society, 77, 195, 286, 503
"Byrth of Mankynde," the, its author and editions, 297

Cæsarean section, the course of pregnancy and labour after vaginal, 54
— on the same patient, repeated, 58
— for pelvic contraction, 82
— for imminent rupture of the uterus, 277
Cancer of the body of the uterus, uterine fibroids complicated with, 1
— of the uterus, the advantages of the abdominal route in operations for, 78
— of the body of the uterus, uterine fibroids undergoing spontaneous enucleation and coexisting with, 81
— of the cervix, unusual case of, 84
— of ovaries, 92
— of the ovary, primary, 192
Carcinoma of the right Fallopian tube, primary, 63
— of the Fallopian tube, 63.
— of the sigmoid flexure of the colon successfully removed during pregnancy, 152
— of the ovary, primary, 331
Cervix, fibromyoma of the, 82
— unusual case of cancer of the, 84
— uteri, primary tuberculous disease of the, 501
Chorea gravidarum, 486
Chorionepithelioma following vesicular mole, case of, 257
Cicatrix, rupture of a former Cæsarean section, at the end of pregnancy, 56
Colpohysterectomy, on anterior, 491
Confinements during artificial half-conscious sleep (Dämmerschlaf), 275
Congress, Lisbon, fifteenth international medical, 155
Contraction, Cæsarean section for pelvic, 82
— without retraction, a case showing uterine, 190
Curettage in cases of retained placenta after abortion, the unreliability of, 280
Cyanosis in infants, recurrent attacks of, 175
Cyst with twisted pedicle, broad ligament, 91

Cystitis with rupture of the bladder following retroversion of the gravid uterus, fatal septic, 51
Cysts of the ovary, a contribution to the knowledge of dermoid, 179

Decapsulation and nephrotomy in the treatment of eclampsia, renal, 169
Degeneration, fibroma of the ovary undergoing sarcomatous, 82
— of the ovaries following operations for chronic disease of the uterine appendages, cystic, 177
Degenerations of uterine fibroids, malignant and benign, 378
De Ribes' bag, recent inversion of the uterus successfully treated by, 278
Dysmenorrhœa, the treatment of, 389

Eclampsia during pregnancy; death from suppression of urine; extensive infarction of both kidneys, 32
— during and after labour; recovery after upwards of 200 fits, 38
— the explanation of, 53
— and its bearings on treatment, the poison of, 54
— cases of puerperal, and one of inversion of the uterus, 89, 90
— renal decapsulation and nephrotomy in the treatment of, 169
— the prophylaxis of puerperal, 395
— the etiology of, 485
Edinburgh Obstetrical Society, 90, 197
Endocarditis during pregnancy, malignant, 22, 197
Epithelioma of the vulva, with the history subsequent to operation, three cases of, 75, 145
Ergotin, on the physiological action of, 188

Fallopian tube, primary carcinoma of the right, 63
— the relation of salpingitis to papilloma and carcinoma of the, 63
Female genital organs, on heterologous mesoblastic new growth of the, 387
— tuberculosis of the, 497
Fibroids complicated with cancer of the body of the uterus, uterine, 1
— in supravaginal hysterectomy, preliminary enucleation of, 80
— undergoing spontaneous enucleation and co-existing with cancer of the body of the uterus, 81
— torsion of, during pregnancy, 182
— malignant and benign degenerations of uterine, 378
Fibroma of the ovary undergoing sarcomatous degeneration, 82
Fibromyoma uteri with pregnancy, 81
— of the cervix, 82
— disintegration of uterine, due to hæmorrhage, and resulting necrobiosis, 478, 503
Fibromyomata of the uterus, death of, 383
Fœtation, extra-uterine, 650
Fœtus, extra-uterine gestation at full term, death of, 592
— tubal abortion with survival of, 609
— surgical treatment of advanced gestation with death of the, 641
Fundus, the histology of adenocarcinoma of the uterine, 282

Gestation, early tubal, 514
— early extra-uterine, hæmatocele and hæmatosalpinx 564
— the pathology of cornual, 583
— at full term, extra-uterine, death of fœtus; removal of fœtus and placenta by abdominal section; recovery, 592
— with acute salpingitis, tubal, 613
— ruptured ectopic, following Alexander's operation, 618
— advanced extra-uterine, with living child, 638
— surgical treatment of advanced ectopic, with death of the fœtus, 641
— the bearings of pathology on the symptoms of tubal, 647
— a study of 70 cases of ectopic, 649
— repeated extra-uterine, on the same side, 650
Glasgow Obstetrical and Gynæcological Society, 86

Glycosuria in pregnancy, three cases of, 191
— in pregnant women, 488
Gonococcus in the puerperium, the, 171
Graafian follicle, case of pregnancy occurring in a, 90
Grafting, ovarian, 197
— followed by pregnancy and the delivery of a living child, a case of heteroplastic ovarian, 492
Graves' disease considered as a manifestation of the auto-intoxication of pregnancy, 369
Gynæcology, the use of oxygen in, 283

Hæmatocele, 564
Hæmatocolpos; retained blood all removed at operation; imperforate hymen; hæmatometra, 185
Hæmatometra, 185
Hæmatosalpinx, 584
Hæmorrhage, disintegration of a uterine fibro-myoma, due to, 478, 503
Hæmorrhages in the new-born, a plea for operative interference in intracranial, 174
